brand history.

Malin+Goetz is a luxury apothecary brand based in New York City. The first shop, which opened in 2004, is a modern interpretation of a traditional neighborhood apothecary. The store is full of activity, wonderful treatments, and has great customer service. Matthew Malin and Andrew Goetz live just around the corner and still personally wait on customers when they are in the shop.

Nine years later Malin+Goetz remains family-owned and operated, supplying quality products that simplify skincare for all skin types; especially the most sensitive. From London to Los Angeles, our products are now available in over 600 luxury retail locations around the globe. The first store in Chelsea has been joined by three other signature Malin+Goetz shops in New York and Los Angeles.

Our natural based skin care formulas are effective enough to eliminate unnecessary steps, yet gentle and free of artificial fragrance and color.

While our treatment products are fragrance-free, we know people love an olfactory experience. Our collection of unique Eau De toilettes and Candles — from spicy, floral rose to exotic, seductive bay rum — provide the opportunity to tailor personal fragrance choices. You'll find our scents beautifully complement our botanical-based, naturally scented treatment products.
